

Bakari Amani

Bakari is a 9 year old boy who is very talkative and friendly but a little bit shy when he meets you for the first time. He was born on 2/21/2000.

Both his parents are alive but they don't live together. The mother is HIV positive but Bakari is HIV negative. Sometime Bakari stays with the dad and sometimes with the mother and the grandparents.

He is in grade four and his favorite subject is Kiswahili. He would like to become a driver or a pilot when he grows up. He likes playing football a lot.

They live in a two roomed house that does not have electricity and the house is so much squeezed, they live 11 of them in that two roomed house.

They use charcoal or a stove for cooking food. Bakari eats three times a day and he shares a bed with his two sisters. He does not have any health issues.

On his last exams he had 301 marks out of 500 marks.
