

Daisy Atieno

Daisy is twelve years old and in sixth grade. She lives with her father and four brothers.

Her father and mother are both HIV positive. Daisy lives with her father in Dagoretti while her mother lives in the country side with relatives.

Daisy is however HIV negative. She lives in a one roomed house that doesn't have electricity with her family, her father is a plumber. Due to the limited space in the house, Daisy sleeps on a mattress that is placed on the floor with her younger brothers.

They cook using charcoal jiko and she eats twice a day. She has a table and a chair where she does her homework and the environment is conducive for her to study.

She is a talkative girl and her hobby is playing football and netball. She does well n school and on her last school mark she got 302 out of a total of 500 marks. She would like to be a banker when she grows up.