

LYDIA ATIENO

Lydia is 11 years old and in sixth grade. She was born on October, 3rd 1997. She lives with both her parents and a younger brother. Both her parents are HIV positive, she is however HIV negative.

They live in a one roomed house that is a little bit squeezed. Due the limited space Lydia shares a bed with her brother. Her mother cooks using charcoal and she eats three times a day. Lydia is not a very talkative girl. She loves playing football and singing. She usually sings at her church on Sundays. She also has many friends.

She has a table and a chair where she does her homework and the environment is good and fairly clean. They buy water and toilet facilities are shared. Lydia does well at school. On her last school exams she got 348 marks out of 500. She wants to be a teacher when she grows up.
